Subject: Microsoft Settlement

i believe the settlement, as is, is very inadequate.
more needs to be done to limit Microsoft's monopolistic tendencies.
Free market encourages competition, but microsoft does not. it is not in the best interest of anyone (those financially tied to microsoft aside) to allow them continue their systematic elimination of anyone who can compete. technology is so tightly ingrained in the future of our lives, indeed most likely all of humanity, to allow one company to control the market. listen to the people. give us what we want. its your job.
